

Super Saturday 2020

The English Language Center at Howard Community College presents an afternoon of exciting professional development opportunities!

Painful Myths about Teaching Grammar – Dr. Keith Folse

Using information from four decades of teaching, a lifetime of language learning, and current research, Dr. Keith Folse will focus on five myths about grammar in teaching ESL. Is a grammar class a good thing? Is studying grammar necessary? Who chooses the grammar syllabus? Are some grammar lessons more useful? Whether you love or hate grammar, teach it or avoid it, you'll probably reconsider your position after hearing this talk.

Pronunciation Tools to Add to Your Teaching Toolkit – Rosie Verratti and Dr. Tamara Jones

This session will explore core features of English pronunciation and suggest 10 everyday items teachers can carry in their teaching “toolkits” that will give them fun, practical ways to help students improve their English intelligibility.

Teaching Tips Mini Conference – HCC ELC Faculty

A series of short presentations for practical teaching ideas that benefit students and make teaching easier.

Books published by event sponsor, University of Michigan Press, will be available for purchase (<https://www.press.umich.edu/elt>)

Saturday, February 29th, 1:00-5:00PM

Duncan Hall 100
Howard Community College
10901 Little Patuxent Parkway
Columbia, MD 21044

Admission: $10 (paid at the door)
HCC / ELC Faculty and Staff: free admission and professional development credit (unpaid)

Please RSVP to cmorphew@howardcc.edu